Sub: Holding Awareness Camps for ESIC Stakeholders on ESI Scheme – reg.

ESIC Field Offices have been organizing awareness programmes periodically for creating awareness amongst the workers of the factories/establishments about the benefits provided under the ESI Scheme in coordination with employers' associations, trade unions, big employers, EPFO, etc.

2. Dattopant Thengadi National Board for Workers Education and Development (DTNBWED), a deptt. under the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Govt. of India undertakes training and awareness camps for creating mass awareness and educating workers.
3. Accordingly, all the field offices are requested to coordinate with nearest DTNBWED regional centres and may depute an officer from respective ESIC RO/SRO in such training and educative camps being undertaken by DTNBWED for the workers and the trade unions with sufficient publicity material/ contents for distribution during such programmes.
4. Further, the field offices may contact DTNBWED to participate in the awareness programmes conducted by ESIC field offices for the workers of the factories/establishments.

This has the approval of the Director General

Yours faithfully
